ALMA MATER

Dear Alma Mater, smile upon thy children!
Gladly we greet thee, altogether lovely;
Peace be within thy classic halls and temples,
Hail, Alma Mater dear.

Hail to the heroes who have gone before us.
Young men and maidens, filled with true devotion!
Bright is their glory, fadeless and undying,
Hail to our heroes gone!

Hail to our classmates, bound by ties ne'er broken;
Here once again we pledge our vows of friendship;
Brave hearts and true hearts sound aloud the chorus:
Long live our comrades dear!

Dear Alma Mater, tenderly thy children
Gather, and bring to thee gracious salutations;
Comrades, your voices lift once again in chorus,
Hail, Alma Mater dear!

The Alma Mater of the University of California, Berkeley, is a beautiful building, the work of the architect, John Galen Howard, and the sculptor, John D. Graham. It is a masterpiece of architecture, and a fitting home for the University of California.

THE PRESIDENT'S GREETING

In behalf of the University I am happy to extend greetings and welcome to the returning students and to those who are entering Stetson for the first time. The scholarly Faculty and the Administration offer complete cooperation and help in solving all problems that may arise. The key words of the institution are scholarship, culture, Christian character. GENERAL INFORMATION

ACADEMIC RANK OF FACULTY MEMBERS

Regularly in all recognized educational institutions there are these four ranks or grades of teachers:

1. Professor
2. Associate Professor
3. Assistant Professor
4. Instructor

Below these in rank are assistant instructors, teaching fellows, graduate assistants, laboratory assistants, and student assistants with various functions to perform.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

Students are responsible directly to their instructors in the matter of class attendance. When, in the opinion of the instructor, a student is absent to the detriment of his scholastic achievement, the instructor shall notify the student to that effect and give written notice to the Registrar and the Dean of the University. If the student accumulates further absences, he shall, unless excused for illness or emergency, be dropped from the course, and shall be reinstated only upon recommendation of his instructor and the Committee on Admissions.

Students who qualify for the Dean's List and the Honor Roll, shall, during the succeeding semester, be entitled to the privilege of optional attendance.

A student who is absent without excuse from one of his classes five consecutive times or who drops a course without permission, automatically suspends himself from the University. When the student's absences have been reported by the teacher, the Dean will inform the student that he has automatically suspended himself from the University and that he may be reinstated only by special permission and upon satisfactory re-classification.

Attention is called to the importance of registering at the opening of the semester before instruction in the various classes begins. Students who enter after classes have begun are at a disadvantage. In order to receive credit in a given course the student must be enrolled in the course not later than the date set in the University calendar as the last day to register for credit.

CHAPEL ATTENDANCE

All undergraduate students, unless excused for some acceptable reason by the President, are required to attend Chapel daily. In the event a student accumulates 20 absences (excused and unexcused combined) before the end of a given semester, he shall not be allowed additional unexcused absences during the remainder of that semester, and additional unexcused absences shall be reported to the Committee on Student Conduct and said student shall be subject to discipline. Chapel absences (both excused and unexcused) on the day before and after all holidays shall count as double absences. All Chapel absences are recorded as excused or unexcused in the Registrar's office.

AMOUNT OF CLASS WORK ALLOWED

The number of semester hours normally carried each semester by each student is fifteen and one-half. When there is a good reason, a student may be given special permission to take fewer hours. Students who are working more than three hours per day outside of school should not carry more than twelve semester hours. Students on academic probation may not carry more than thirteen hours, and may be required to take fewer hours.

Except in the department of Engineering and in extraordinary instances, students are not permitted to take more than sixteen hours of academic work, exclusive of physical education. A student who has made a grade of B or better on all of his studies in the preceding semester may take a maximum of twenty hours provided: (1) That he shall have the approval of the Dean of the University; (2) That proper consideration is given the health of said student.

CHANGE OF REGISTRATION

If a student desires to change his program of studies after registration, he must pay a fee of one dollar and secure the approval of the Dean or Director of the college or school in which he is enrolled. During any semester, courses dropped after the first two weeks will automatically count as failures.

SIGNIFICANCE OF COURSE NUMBERS

Courses in the 100 and 200 series constitute the Lower Division and are in the main open only to freshmen and sophomores; courses in the 300 and 400 series constitute the Upper Division and are in the main open only to juniors and seniors. Freshmen are not permitted to take 300 or 400 courses, and sophomores are not permitted to take 400 courses. Two semester courses in which the first semester may not be taken for credit independently of the second are to be distinguished by the dash between the numbers designating the two divisions of the courses (e.g., French 101-102). First semester courses ordinarily are given odd numbers; second semester courses, even numbers.

HONOR ROLL

In order to encourage high scholarship at the end of each semester the University publishes an Honor Roll of students who do an exceptionally high grade of work. Students who carry a minimum of fourteen (14) semester hours (in the case of Law students, full time work) are eligible to be placed on the list; to qualify, undergraduates must make either a B plus average (i.e., 2.5 quality point average) or no grade below B; graduates, A.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

Each student must assume full responsibility for meeting all requirements and for registering for the courses leading to the degree for which he is a candidate. Students in the College of Liberal Arts should confer with the Dean of the University and the heads of the departments in which they wish to major concerning their programs of study; pre-legal students and students of the College of Law should confer with the Dean of the College of Law; students in the School of Music should confer with the Director, those in the School of Business with the Director. Each student must, of course, have his record checked by the Registrar. Students who plan to graduate in June, 1942, must file application not later than October 15, 1941.

LOST AND FOUND ARTICLES

All lost and found articles should be reported at the University Book Store in Elizabeth Hall.

WATCH THE BULLETIN BOARD DAILY. All important notices and announcements are placed on the bulletin boards in the various buildings and it is to your advantage to read them carefully every day.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

Stetson University has three regular student publications:

1. THE STETSON REPORTER. A weekly school paper edited entirely by students under faculty supervision.

2. THE STETSONIAN. A magazine containing various articles of a literary nature; published by students.

3. THE HATTER. The yearbook of Stetson University.

THE INFIRMARY

All students who pay their Infirmary fees are entitled to the service of the University Infirmary. This service consists of care in minor illnesses and the relief of acute conditions which do not require special nursing. A student may, at his own expense, have any physician he desires. In case of serious illness, the University always notifies the student's parents.

INFIRMARY RULES

1. Students admitted to the Infirmary may not leave without permission from the nurse in charge.
2. No excuse for absence from the class because of illness will be granted unless said absence or absences are reported to the infirmary at the time of the absence or before classes are missed.
3. No smoking will be allowed in the infirmary.
4. No student is permitted to visit another student of the opposite sex who is in the Infirmary, except by permission from the Head Nurse.
5. In the absence of the nurse from her office students are to leave a note in regard to their illness stating time at which note is left.
6. All excuses for absences or change in Physical Education must be requested and produced during the office hours as scheduled immediately preceding the period at which the class meets instead of during the class hour.
7. Treatments are to be procured from Infirmary ONLY and not from nurse's room.

INFIRMARY OFFICE HOURS

Students are to come to the Infirmary Office at the time scheduled below. Those who need care in the morning and are in class during the following two hours as scheduled are to come between 7:30 and 8:00 A. M., boys and girls.

THE UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

The library is a depository of knowledge, culture, and experience in printed form, and serves as a general laboratory for the entire college community—students and faculty. It is the hope of the library staff that students will use the library for both study and recreational reading. The staff will gladly assist any student in locating and using library material.

Most books may be withdrawn for home use for two weeks, and if necessary, may be renewed once for the same length of time. Reserved books, bound periodicals, and certain rare and expensive books may not be used outside the library building except with special permission. The date the book is due at the library is always indicated when it is charged. Books in the reference collection (each book in this collection is marked with the symbol "REF") may not be taken from the library building at any time. This collection consists of general and specialized encyclopedias, dictionaries and handbooks.

Reserved books may be used in the library at any time. When there is great demand for a reserved book it may be used by the student for a period of one hour only. These books may be withdrawn for home use after 9:00 P. M. and must be returned before 8:30 A. M. the next morning the library is open. Reserved books may be obtained by an oral request (author and title) at the loan desk.

The shelves containing the books (except reference books) are not open to the students except with special permission, and call slips must be presented in order to obtain books. Call numbers may be determined by the use of the catalog. In the catalog, books are listed alphabetically usually under the surname of the author, the first word in the title, and the subjects of which they treat. The library staff is ready to aid students in the use of the catalog. Students should remember that the catalog indexes books only and cannot be used as an approach to the magazines, the publications of the federal government and certain small groups of miscellaneous material. At present, the catalog is divided into two alphabetically arranged groups. The "old catalog" contains entries for books added to the library before 1936, and the "new catalog" those added since 1936.

Anyone who would like to read an elementary manual on how to use the library is referred to Zadee Brown: THE LIBRARY KEY.

FINES

The library charges fines for failure to comply with its rules as indicated below:

1. Returning a two weeks book late, 3c per day or fraction of day.
2. Returning a reserved book late, 25c the first hour and 10c each additional hour or fraction of an hour.
3. Fee for replacement of a book in addition to its price, 50c.
4. In no case will a fine amounting to more than the price of the book be charged.

THE STETSON RELIGIOUS COUNCIL

The Stetson Religious Council was organized in 1940. Its purposes are to bring about a deeper understanding and sympathy among the various denominations represented in the University, to encourage each denomination to enlist and promote activity in its own student group, to join with the administration and faculty in encouraging a Christian spirit which will help every student to have a deeper reverence for the ideals of Stetson University.

The following denominations on the campus are organized into various student unions and are represented on the Stetson Religious Council: Baptist, Catholic, Christian, Episcopal, Methodist, and Presbyterian.

DRAMATICS

THE LITTLE THEATRE

Outstanding events of the school year are the dramatic productions presented in the Irving C. Stover Little Theatre.

Any student enrolled in the University is invited to participate in the dramatic activities. Every phase of play production is open to those interested in educational dramatics.

New students are given the opportunity to demonstrate their abilities by taking part in one-act plays presented in the Workshop. The best performers are rewarded by being cast with the Stetson Players in the long plays.

The cherished honor for the participation in dramatics is membership in Theta Alpha Phi. Members are selected from the Junior and Senior classes, with outstanding achievement in the Little Theatre productions, and scholarship, as prerequisites.

(For full details see the annual catalogue, pages 49-77).

THE COLLEGE OF LAW

A GREETING FROM THE DEAN OF THE COLLEGE OF LAW

The faculty joins with me in extending to the entering law students a friendly welcome. The law profession in normal times is an eminent and highly respectable one; but in the days of our years, with the fundamentals of the American faith under attack by aggressor powers, a high and sacred importance attaches to our profession.

Enter into our fellowship and with the inspiration and perspiration which it will generate strive, seek and find the tools of your profession.

Sincerely,

THOMAS F. LAMBERT, Jr.

Dean of the College of Law.

LAW STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Stetson Law Student Association is composed of all students regularly enrolled in the College of Law. The purposes of the Association are: to maintain a closer relationship between the individual student and the administration; to promote the interests of the students individually and collectively; to provide a measure of self-government for the members; and, to develop a feeling of good will and understanding between the students and the faculty.

LEGAL FRATERNITIES

Phi Alpha Delta. The David J. Brewer Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity was installed at Stetson in 1915.

Sigma Nu Phi. The John Marshall Chapter of the Sigma Nu Phi fraternity was installed at Stetson in 1921.

Membership in these two legal fraternities is open to regularly enrolled students in the College of Law.

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

A GREETING FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Greetings to all Freshmen and to students returning to the School of Music. I hope you have come with the determination to work hard. The School of Music has an ambitious program for the year and needs your help. Make it a point to see me at least once during a semester. I am interested in you and your work.

I wish all Freshmen in the School of Music to see me before they register, and all students majoring in Music to see me before October 1.

Any student not majoring in music but interested primarily for his or her cultural development may take up to thirty hours in music as electives toward the A.B. degree.

Sincerely,
W. E. DUCKWITZ
Director of the School of Music

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

The School of Music is the most active unit of our University. Its students participate in practically every university or campus activity,—athletic games, Little Theatre plays, chapel, commencement exercises, and all special campus activities. They also provide programs for local and state clubs and organizations.

The School of Music occupies the building known as DeLand Hall and is located on the north-east corner of the Boulevard and Minnesota Avenue.

The purpose of the School of Music is two-fold:

1. To prepare the student for the profession as performer or teacher.
2. To give Stetson students the opportunity to develop the cultural side of life.

Stetson University is a member of the National Association of Schools of Music and offers courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Arts with a major in music. See University Bulletin p. 137.

Students may use Music as electives in the College of Liberal Arts. See University Bulletin p. 136.

The purpose of the School of Music is to train students for the profession of Music. It offers a thorough course in theory in all its branches and history of music, voice, piano, organ, harp, stringed and wind instruments and public school music. Students not majoring in music are offered the opportunity to study music as a cultural subject. The school also maintains a preparatory department.

CREDITS IN MUSIC ALLOWED AS ELECTIVES TOWARD A. B. DEGREE

If the student meets the entrance requirements in applied music as outlined for admission for the public school course a maximum of thirty semester hours in music, ten of which must be in theoretical work will be accepted as a part of the credits required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the College of Liberal Arts when a student majors in some subject other than music.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Orchestra and Band scholarships are given to a limited number of students who have sufficient training and experience. In addition each year the Board of Trustees gives to the School of Music the following scholarships: four free tuition scholarships valued at $250 each for students of exceptional talent who would be unable to continue their studies without this aid; a $100 scholarship to each county having two or more applicants. These county scholarships are awarded by committees of three musicians of the county in which auditions are held.

Assistance is given to a limited number of students who need to earn part of their expenses while in college by giving them an opportunity to work in the School of Music as stenographers, accompanists, or as assistants in the Library.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Stetson Glee Clubs. The University has two glee clubs, one for women and one for men. These clubs operate as separate units and combine to form the University Chorus. The glee clubs appear in concerts at the University and in many cities throughout the State. The Chorus presents an oratorio at Christmas and a concert and opera each spring. Membership in these organizations is competitive.

The Stetson Symphony Orchestra. The Stetson Symphony Orchestra was organized to give students opportunity for orchestral experience. A series of symphonic programs planned to include a symphony or concerto, selections from classical and modern repertoire, and advanced student composition is given each year under the auspices of the School of Music.

The Stetson Little Symphony. The Stetson Little Symphony is a small orchestra composed of experienced student players. It performs as opera and oratorio orchestra and frequently presents original arrangements and compositions. It furnishes music for all University plays and on those occasions is led by student conductors.

The Stetson Band. This concert band of sixty pieces is a feature of the musical training of the School of Music.

THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

A GREETING FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

In behalf of the faculty of the School of Business I extend a cordial welcome to all the students of Stetson University and especially to new students. Those of you who have enrolled in the School of Business have chosen as careers what has been described as the oldest of the arts and the newest of the professions. It is our aim that you will achieve at Stetson University not only a mastery of the technics necessary for your careers but also an awareness of the responsibilities involved in the profession of business.

I hope that you new students in the School of Business will soon learn what the older students already know, that its faculty wants to help each of you in whatever way it can.

RUSSELL C. LARCOM
Director of the School of Business

THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

The purpose of the School of Business is to enable students to gain an understanding of fundamental economic and business principles, techniques, and problems, and to aid in preparing them for eventual participation in business and industry. The requirements for admission to the School of Business are the same as those of the College of Liberal Arts. The School of Business offers courses in Accounting, Business Administration, Economics, Journalism and Secretarial Science. (See catalogue pages 158 to 168 for complete outline of courses.)

JOHN B. STETSON UNIVERSITY

Friends, both old and the new ones I shall meet, may I extend to you greetings and an exceptionally warm welcome. To all of you may I say I sincerely hope we will enjoy the same spirit of friendship and cooperation we have always enjoyed on our campus and in our work.

1. A base-runner can score from third base on a passed ball at his own risk. This rule pertains only to those fields which have a back-stop. No scoring otherwise.

2. A base-runner can leave first base as soon as the pitcher delivers the ball.

3. A batsman can bunt the ball at any time. On the third strike, if he does not bunt fairly, he is out.

4. No rooters or players allowed to stand in back of back-stop.

5. If a fair batted ball strikes the batter or the base-runner, he is out.

6. A pitcher must have both feet in line before he delivers the ball.

7. Any umpire's decision which is questioned can be interpreted by the Intramural Director provided both the opposing managers or the teams' captains are present.

8. All decisions which are protestable must be filed as a protest at the time and place of the decision. No protests will be considered after a game.

9. Short baseball spikes can be used on shoes, if available players using spikes are not permitted to slide.

10. All pitches must be delivered from a throwing position which releases the ball not more than six inches from the body.

11. An infield fly in diamond ball is interpreted as in baseball. (Automatically out with runners on first and second, or, on first, second and third with less than two out.)

DRAMATICS

RULES

1. A scene or scenes from a longer play instead of a one-act play may be presented.

2. No play may require more than 55 minutes for presentation. All incidental music, etc., must be included within this time limit.

3. The number of persons in the cast is not limited.

4. Permission to use plays and payment of royalties must be handled by each manager directly with the publishers BEFORE the play is presented.

5. The order of presentation will be determined by lot.

6. Each cast will provide all personal properties and all general properties.

7. Each cast will require not more than six minutes to set its stage and two minutes to clear. This rule may be waived at the discretion of the dramatic intramural leader.

8. No wall decorations of any kind, no screens used as backgrounds, nor backdrops supported in any way may be used. This rule may be waived at the discretion of the dramatic intramural leader.

9. The regular intramural rules will govern all other problems.

10. Absolutely no persons other than those who belong to the intramural group will be allowed to participate in any way connected with the production of the play.

11. Theta Alpha Phi members are excluded, but will be allowed to direct the production if the managers call them.

12. Types of plays to be presented will be comedy, farce, and melodrama.

PLAN OF CONTEST

The leader of intramural dramatics will give each group a statement as to the locations of doors and windows, a cyclorama, and an exterior set if possible. He will cooperate in every way with coaches and casts, but the latter must take entire responsibility for securing properties. Since neither settings nor properties will be equally suitable for all plays presented, it is obvious that the judges will NOT judge the stage sets but the play presentations themselves.

Each cast is responsible for setting its own stage and for removing its properties immediately at the close of the play, so that the cast presenting the next play may set its stage promptly.

All plays will be presented on the one night, and the announcement of the winners will be made after the last play is over.

INTRAMURAL DEBATE RULES

1. Florida Beta Chapter of Pi Kappa Delta will select and publish the topics for debate and the time to be allotted for speaking.

2. Any members of the participating intramural groups who have not engaged in intracollegiate debating at Stetson University, or at another institution of collegiate standing, are eligible to participate.

3. Collegiate debaters and members of Pi Kappa Delta may serve as coaches for the groups.

4. There shall be preliminary and final rounds. The winners and the runners-up in both the men's and women's division shall participate in the finals.

5. The debaters will be judged on the basis of (1) delivery (2) content and logic (3) entertainment value.

ANNUAL INTRAMURAL SING

The purpose of the intramural sing is to develop an interest in singing through competitive participation among the undergraduates of Stetson University, and to give as many as possible an opportunity to express themselves through music.

Under intramural regulations the contest is open to all undergraduates in social organizations on the campus, Fraternity and non-Fraternity students with the exception of those who are listed as members of the Stetson Radio Chorus.

All participating groups in the contest will select one song of their own choice the arrangement of which must be in at least three-part harmony. Songs used by local fraternities on campus will not be accepted by the judges. The judges are selected from among persons not affiliated with the organizations participating.

Each group will select its own leader who may be a member of the above mentioned Radio Chorus; however such person will be restricted to leading and not singing with his or her group.

Each group participating in the contest will be judged on the following points:

(1) Appearance and stage presence; (2) Leadership; (3) Diction; (4) Intonation; (5) Interpretation; (6) Arrangement; (7) Adaptability of song to each group.

The intramural sing is judged in two divisions, one for women and one for men. Silver loving cups are presented as trophies to the winner of each division. The group winning the contest three years in succession retires the trophy.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Any young woman in the University may belong to the Women's Athletic Association. This organization is primarily interested in sports for women, but it also offers opportunity for all-round development. The meetings are held every two weeks. The main project of the W. A. A. at the present time is to continue the swimming pool fund which was started by the organization in 1937-38.

The W. A. A. sponsors intramural competition encouraging the participation of the many rather than the few.

Intramural competition is held between teams composed of dormitory girls, town girls and sorority girls. Tournaments are held in the following activities: tennis, archery, golf, basketball, diamond ball, volley ball, badminton, ping pong, and soccer. Perpetual team trophies are awarded each year.

Individual awards are made for participation, and at the end of two years those girls deemed worthy are awarded an "S". They automatically become members of the "S" Club.

In addition to the tournaments there are other activities including breakfast hikes, over-night camping parties, beach parties, and moonlight horseback rides. Each year the W. A. A. sponsors a "Play Day" for several Florida high schools. There is also the annual Rollins-Stetson Sports Day and the Florida College All-State Sports Day.

For the yearly program and other information see the W. A. A. handbook.

SOCIAL FRATERNITIES

The men's social fraternities with chapters at Stetson are:

1. Delta Sigma Phi. This Fraternity organized in 1898 as a local organization became the Alpha Chi chapter of Delta Sigma Phi in 1925.

2. Sigma Nu. The Delta Mu Chapter existed as a local for some time and was installed as a national chapter in 1913.

3. Pi Kappa Phi. The Chi Chapter of this fraternity existed as a local chapter for ten years and became the Chi Chapter of the Pi Kappa Phi in 1921.

ATTENTION FRESHMAN MEN

No man shall be pledged to a fraternity this year until the fourth Monday following the last day of Orientation.

During this time, each fraternity will have one party or smoker each week. No fraternity or fraternity man is permitted to occupy the time of a freshman while another fraternity is giving a party.

Invitations to join will be distributed on the day mentioned in section one.

These rules must be strictly observed for your protection as well as the fraternity's.

Dexioma. The Alpha chapter of Dexioma was established at Stetson in May, 1940. The purpose of the organization is to promote democratic friendship and understanding among its members and to broaden the social, cultural, political, athletic, and religious life of the members. All women in Stetson University who are not affiliated with a national social organization may become members.

(For information concerning Honor Societies see the annual bulletin, pages 34-36.)

WOMEN'S PAN-HELLENIC ASSOCIATION

INFORMATION ABOUT SORORITIES AND RUSHING

Many inquiries are made each year by women entering the University for the first time, concerning the nature of sorority membership and of "rushing." The following information is given with the hope of answering these questions:

A sorority is a group of college women, numbering from twenty to fifty, who have elected to establish a close affiliation with one another for four years as college students and thereafter as college and sorority alumnae.

The procedure of securing new members is termed "Pan-Hellenic Rushing." Rushing simply means that the sorority invites you to certain functions and has individual engagements with you in an effort to become acquainted.

Alumnae members of each sorority send back recommendations to their groups if they have sisters, relatives, or close friends entering the college whom they think would be adaptable to their groups. During Rush Week these recommended persons largely make up the group of rushees. There is informal rushing during the remainder of the college year; that is, each sorority entertains at intervals. This latter type of rushing is done to select new members from acquaintances made through campus contacts and friendships as contrasted with the contacts made through recommendations of alumnae and friends.

After Rush Week the sororities invite a certain number to become pledges. The procedure is "sorority bidding" and the invitation is termed "a bid."
